The training event will take place at the McPherson Church of the Brethren, and lodging and meals will be on the McPherson College campus. All costs, including lodging and meals, are underwritten by district funds as a part of our transformation initiative. Transportation is the only cost to Western Plains participants. These events are planned for all pastors as well as all lay congregational and district leaders to provide transformation training as well as fellowship and other spiritual growth opportunities.

Please check below if you need the following dormitory lodging and meals during the training. (If you are also attending District Conference, skip payment for these on the conference registration form.)

Lodging: Thursday night lodging in Dotzour Hall. No lodging needed

I need a ground floor room. (Dotzour Hall does not have an elevator.)

Please Note: Dotzour Hall does NOT provide bedding or linens. You need to bring all of your bedding (sheets, pillow, blankets), toiletries, towels, and washcloths. Bathrooms are shared with others on your floor.

Meals: Thursday supper Friday breakfast Friday lunch No meals needed

I have food allergies and/or special dietary needs. (Please list below)

Please Note: Separate plates are prepared for those who inform us of special dietary needs. It is your responsibility to indicate to cafeteria staff of your name/dietary need at each meal so they can serve you.

Registration deadline: Monday, July 10
